

I am opposing the current Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) challenge the current Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. A change would weaken our current system and could potentially result in over 800,000,000 in unwanted phone calls within an eighteen month period. Please oppose any recommended changes to this law.

Respectfully,

Doris A. Durham